

A Berry Special Thank You...

Northcliffe CRCs Berry Special Breakfast was the opening event of the Act Belong Commit Southern Forest Arts Festival. Pancakes, berries and live music were appreciated by all. We invited significant CRC and Telecentre volunteers from the past and present to attend, and the Northcliffe community. Almost 100 pancakes were served to over 60 people.

Northcliffe's Telecentre began its life in the Northcliffe Family and Community Centre over twenty years ago. Several moves later, rebranded as the Community Resource Centre, the service is still well supported by the community and going strong.

Volunteers have carried the NCRC forward over this time. At our Berry Special Breakfast we decided to recognise some of those volunteers. Awards were chosen by our Manager who has been researching the history of Northcliffe CRC.

Volunteer Commitment Award

Extraordinary efforts by extraordinary volunteers:
Val Lee, Cheryl Elphick and Ken Lloyd.

Technology Pioneers Award

Individuals who have brought new technologies to the NCRC and the Northcliffe community:
Kate Haslam, John Austin, Mal Adams

Number Crunchers Award

Accounting and book keeping support and training:
John Walters

Bridge Over Troubled Waters Award

Protecting the funding and future of Northcliffe's Telecentre:
Vicki Ruffin

Capital Achievements Award

Contributions to NCRC's capital premises:
Carole Perry

Behind the Scenes Award

For establishing a new committee and direction for the Telecentre:
Fiona Sinclair

Founders Award

Our original Telecentre committee:
Kerry Parkes, Dianna Simms (Krakouer), Maja Plante, Anne Sepkus, Gwendoline Nidd, Gerry Rickman, Peta Sargeson

For founders Peta Sargeson and Dianna Simms, their award is posthumous.

Keystone Award

Volunteers whose efforts have been central to our survival:
Roy Moss and Paul Owens.

Our congratulations to our recipients!

a little CRC...

Recipient of an NCRC Keystone Award, Roy Moss served on both the Telecentre and the CRC committee, with a break in between. He recently retired after serving as our Vice Chairperson from 2009 to 2016.

Roy made a cameo appearance as our master pancake chef, cooking around 100 pancakes for 60 hungry breakfasters. Our thanks to Roy and to the other volunteers who helped us celebrate this occasion.
