

...a little CRC

Northcliffe Community Resource Centre

The staff and committee of the Northcliffe Community Resource Centre would like to wish everybody in Northcliffe a happy holiday season and a successful New Year in 2019.

This last year has seen many successful events for us here at the CRC, notably a campaign to overturn a plan to reduce our funds to an unmanageable level. The support from locals, local representatives, and our peak body Linkwest, positively contributed to the CRC staying open for the Northcliffe community.

Apart from supplying our normal services that help keep Northcliffe moving here are some of the other areas where we worked hard in 2018:

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| Workshops | - Gabriel Evans Cartoon and Watercolour, Kids Photography |
| Broadcasts | - Opera in the Park, Operation Jeedara, Summer of the Seventeenth doll, La Boheme |
| Movie Nights | - Long Way North, Isle of Dogs |
| Sundowners | - Diane Evers MLC, Northcliffe Naturally Business Sundowner |
| Projects | - Northcliffe naturally logo redesign and branding partnerships |
| Youth Sponsorships | - Rex Shen, Georgia Clifford, Patricia Mwansa, Matthew Backhouse and team |
| New Traineeships | - Gaye O'Donnell, Catrin Iversen |
| Big Developments | - took over management of former Library space |
| Partnerships | - Aimee and Friends' Ebb and Flow exhibition |

We will continue to put Northcliffe's interests first in 2019.

Happy Holidays.
