

a little CRC...

Northcliffe Festival of ???

Our sincere thanks to the many who showed up to have a chat, fill out a survey and buy a raffle ticket at the Northcliffe CRC booth at the town hall on 2 July. Thanks also to NCD for creating the Northcliffe Showcase event. This community get together was a great demonstration of the sheer amount of activity being juggled by Northcliffe's community groups.

We would like to invite all and sundry, members and non-members, to come into Northcliffe CRC, have a coffee on us, and take 15 minutes to fill out our community survey. You can also drop in and pick up a survey form, and fill it out at home, then drop it back into our survey box. Anonymous survey responses are welcome.

Running until 13 August, Northcliffe CRCs survey is looong. 6 pages. We are not only asking the community to rate their impressions of the services and future plans at the CRC but also asking some broader questions.

Like:

"We have regular discussions with community groups and individuals in town about a regular Northcliffe event which will attract tourists as well as be entertaining and worthwhile for locals.

Obviously we already have some important events like the Karri Cup and further afield we have the Cherry Festival, Unearthed Pemberton, Nannup Music Festival etc. Still it can't hurt to have a dream! What would be your dream annual event for Northcliffe?"

"What type of music you would like to hear, if Northcliffe had a music festival?"

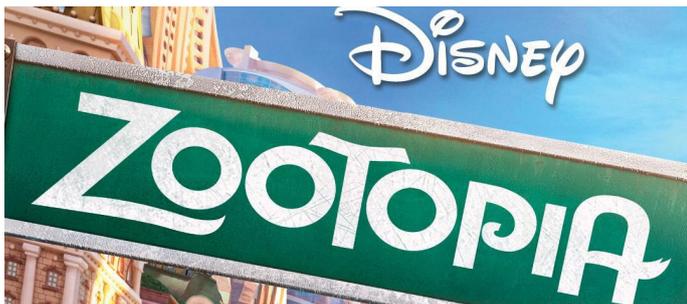

Obviously we can't just deliver your dream festival project. Such projects are enormous! However we will publicise the most interesting survey submissions and have a chance to test what sorts of ideas get the best responses.

Pick up your survey at Northcliffe CRC. The first 50 surveys returned get a free coffee voucher and a CRC souvenir pen.

Mirrorworld

We plan to hang the Mirrorworld exhibition on the 20th July, all going well. We have a lot of printing and photo mounting to do before that time and we are looking for a judge or two to decide prizes. July is going to be busy times at Northcliffe CRC.

The CRC have obtained a screening license for the PG film Zootopia, an animated Disney feature. The screening will be on Saturday 20th August (time to be announced) and bookings will open at 10am on 1 August. The event will be free.

Booked seats will need to be claimed 20 minutes before the advertised start time or otherwise your booking will be given away. We are expecting a full house so we are trying to make sure everyone has a fair shot at getting a seat and that all the seats are filled!

Anyone who wears an animal mask will receive free popcorn and the best animal mask gets a BluRay disc of Zootopia to take home!
