Mirror World

Northcliffe, take a long hard look at yourself in the mirror. And then pick up your phone or camera. And take a photo.

Email it to ncrc@northcliffe.org.au

That's all there is to entering the Northcliffe's 2016 Photo Competition and Exhibition, Mirror World.

The deadline for entries is 31st May. Entry forms and details are available at Northcliffe CRC.

The Northcliffe CRC has a small collection of mirror tiles and you are welcome to borrow a couple for your experiments.

Of course the idea of Mirror World is bigger than just mirrors. Take a look at our posters around town for more ideas about how you could play with the ideas of reflections, twins, reversals and resemblances and come and see us for help and support!

Clockwise from top right we have some early entries by Northcliffe photographers:

Clones—what a good idea, Damon Ormsby

Lamellae, Gaye Van Hazendonk (mushrooms)

Untitled, Cheryl Macaulay (frogs eye)

Trainees Come, Trainees Go...

Starting in May, our new trainee, Gaye Van Hazendonk (O'Donnell) has begun. Gaye will become the face of the Northcliffe CRC for 3 days a week, for the next year or so.

Our old trainee, Damon, has now successfully finished all the requirements for his Cert IV in Business. Damon's is the fourth traineeship successfully completed at Northcliffe CRC. Damon has been with us for a little over two years. We won't miss him.

...only because he's not going anywhere.

Damon has landed himself an ongoing part-time position at the NCRC as our Customer Service Officer. He will be working three days per week, helping us train our new trainee and helping you with your NCRC business.
