

GUIDELINES

We encourage the broadest possible interpretation of our theme which is 'INSIDE'.

Photos of all styles are encouraged –interiors, people, objects, abstract compositions, wordplays, 'snap shot' quality photos (eg. from your phone camera), still life and studio compositions, etcetera.

Digitally altered photos which combine several source photos should not be photo montages but rather designed to create a single coherent image.

Please submit your photos in digital format, JPG or TIFF, at the maximum original resolution available to you. Entry is free and up to 5 images may be submitted.

To provide your photos to us please use email, Dropbox, Google Drive or another similar service, or bring in a USB stick, hard drive or camera card, so we can copy your image files directly. Generally email is unsuitable for large photo files. Images must be accompanied by an entry form, available from the NCRC or online: www.northcliffe.org.au/#inside

NCRC staff will select a number of photos for printing and displaying in the INSIDE exhibition planned for July/August 2017. It is possible the exhibition will then tour to several other locations. NCRC will decide the size and format for printing and mounting photos chosen for any exhibition. After all exhibitions are over, any printed and mounted photos will be yours to keep. We will contact you at this point and you will need to arrange collection from NCRC.

Entries printed for the exhibition will be eligible for the awards/prize pool, which is valued at $500. There will be three award categories and there may be separate prizes awarded within those categories (eg. 1st prize, 2nd prize). The categories are:

- Open category
- Youth (18s and under)
- People's Choice

The NCRC will select one or more judges to make prize/award decisions. Feedback about the overall exhibition and awarded photos may be provided in public commentary however the judge/s will not provide specific feedback to participants on individual photos.

NCRC and any judges appointed by the NCRC may decide not to award a prize in any or all categories, if they deem entries do not sufficiently meet theme or quality criteria.

Our email address for your photos or download links is ncrc@northcliffe.org.au
